The Company — Loss of Value

Since 1999, the Current Management Team Has Presided Over the LOSS OF BILLIONS OF DOLLARS¹ in Shareholder Value

Opportunity

- In 2004, the average Cedar Fair guest spent approximately $5.50 more per visit than the average Six Flags guest
- If Six Flags achieved the same per cap spending as Cedar Fair, it would generate:
 - Approximately $200 million in incremental revenue¹
 - Over $100 million in incremental EBITDA²
- Approximately $1.0 billion in shareholder value!!³

Notes:

- 1 Assuming attendance of 34 million
- 2 Assumes 50% margin on incremental revenue
- 3 Assumes a 10x EBITDA multiple

Loss of Value Resulted Primarily from Asset UNDERUTILIZATION and a FAILURE to Capitalize on Opportunities

Misallocation of Capital

- ◆ The Company overspends on thrill rides that don't appeal to families with young children
- "Six Flags...says that [Kingda Ka] will be closed "for several weeks" as the park repairs a malfunction that put it out of commission"

Wrong Marketing Strategy

- ◆ Expensive marketing campaign anchored by Mr. Six is misguided
- Geared towards awareness, but unclear message
- Weakens the brand

Brawl Erupts at Six Flags Astro World Theme Park

July 6, 2005, Houston, TX—Police say a brawl involving about 100 people erupted at Six Flags Astroworld in Houston before spilling out into several nearby businesses. Witnesses told police that the last night's disturbance involved rival gangs.

...And We Believe the Six Flags Brand Is Being Damaged

Management Has Focused on Managing the Company's Substantial Debt Burden While Losing Sight of Operating Performance and Shareholders

- ◆ Lackluster EBITDA performance has been insufficient to cover the Company's fixed charges
- ◆ The Company has been "burning cash" for years, and we believe the Company will continue to be cash-flow negative going forward

Fixed Charge Coverage Deficiency

As a Result, the Company Is a NET USER of Cash, Effectively TRANSFERRING VALUE AWAY From Equity Holders

Burke & Dannhauser...

- Sold approximately $28 million in stock since 1999 at an average price of $22 per share
- Entered into lucrative employment agreements providing
 - Annual cash salary in excess of $1.8 million, growing approximately 5.5% per annum
 - 620,000 shares of restricted stock
 - 1,030,000 stock options
- Grants were not tied to Company performance!
- In 2004, Burke and Dannhauser received over 80% of the stock options granted by the Company
- The remaining options went to other Board members

We're Not Alone in Our Beliefs

They've had flawed business plans. They prostituted the front gate, and put so many discounts out in the marketplace that that's only way the consumer is going to come. Why pay $44 when you could bring in a Coke can or a McDonald's wrapper and get in for $5? The more you discount, it's like a junkie shooting up heroin — the more you shoot it, the more you need it.

They began doing things in desperation to build the business, but what they were really doing was strangling their business.

Dennis Speigel, president of International Theme Park Services

I think there was a mania, no question...I did a lot of acquisitions when I was president, but those were all contiguous to the main entertainment of Six Flags. This acquisition mania put them into all kinds of properties they just couldn't bring value to.

"I haven't ever met Dan Snyder ... but it sounds like he's dead on."

Ned DeWitt, Former Six Flags President 1973-1982

The problem with Kieran Burke is that he's perceived as a politician, and that he's not perceived as an operating CEO. He's not seen on the Street as a roll-up-your-sleeves-and-run-these-parks kind of guy.

- ♦ 1994–2004 revenue CAGR of 17.4%
- ♦ 1994–2004 EBITDA CAGR of 28.5%

SECTION 3

Our Plan — Seek Stockholder Consents

The History of Our Investment in Six Flags

Over the Past Year, We Have:

- ♦ Purchased 11.7% of Six Flags' stock to become the largest shareholder
- ♦ Held discussions with the independent members of the Board of Directors to offer constructive suggestions for increasing shareholder value
- ♦ Written letters to the independent members of the Board of Directors
- ♦ In response, the Company has ignored our suggestions and failed to implement any alternative strategies that would deliver acceptable results for shareholders

Aug 04	Sep 04	Oct 04	Jan 05	Apr 05	Aug 05	Sep & Oct 05
Red Zone acquired 8.8% of Six Flags stock and filed a 13D announcing intention to influence management and the board to maximize shareholder value	 Held discussions with senior management Mr. Snyder subsequently met with the outside directors to offer several constructive suggestions for improving operations 	◆ The Independent Directors made it clear that they would not entertain any of Mr. Snyder's suggestions	 Red Zone amended its 13D stating its intention to discontinue its interest in Six Flags 	amended its 13D stating it was reconsidering and evaluating all options	Red Zone purchased additional shares in Six Flags, bringing its total holding to 11.7% Red Zone filed preliminary proxy materials disclosing its intention to seek consents to replace three directors and to launch a cash tender for up to 34.9% of Six Flags
				•	 Six Flags announced it is pursuing a possible sale of the Company 	2

What We Are Doing

On October 5th We Filed a Revised Proxy Statement with the SEC Stating Our Intention to Do the Following:

- ♦ Seek shareholder consent to:
 - remove three non-independent Directors including Kieran Burke (CEO), James Dannhauser
 (CFO) and Stanley Shuman (Director)
 - elect Mark Shapiro, Daniel M. Snyder, and Dwight Schar to the Board
 - amend the Company's Bylaws in order to:
 - fix the number of Directors permitted to serve on the Board at seven
 - require the unanimous vote of all Directors for the Board to amend the number of Directors serving on the Board
 - provide that vacancies on the Board created as a result of the removal of the current Directors by Six Flag's stockholders may be filled only by a majority vote of Six Flags' stockholders
 - repeal each provision of the Company's Bylaws or amendments of the Bylaws that are adopted after September 13, 2004
- ◆ Launch a cash tender offer for up to 34.9% of shares at $6.50 per share only if:
 - The Consent Solicitation is successful
 - The Company removes its defensive provisions
 - Mark Shapiro is elected CEO and Daniel Snyder is elected Chairman of the Board of Directors
 - Six Flags shares trade below $6.50 for five consecutive trading days, within 90 days following the date our Nominees are seated on the Board

The Fix — Maximize Shareholder Value

Putting the Pieces Together—Clean, Safe, Fun

Six Flags' Current Management Has Done a Less than Satisfactory Job Managing an Illustrious Asset Base

Current Situation

New Expertise and Management

Enhanced Shareholder Value

Operational Improvements...

...to Change the Face of Six Flags

Area for Improvement	What's Wrong with Status Quo?	Identified Opportunities
Advertising & Marketing	 No clear message Targets only one of two key demographics (youth/Gen–X) Expensive TV commercial program Lack of co-branded marketing 	 Re-brand message: "CLEAN, SAFE, FUN" Target BOTH mothers with young children and youth/teenagers Use smart, cost-effective targeted marketing Blow out co-branded marketing programs
Concessions	◆ We believe there are too few strategic concessions relationships	 Sell exclusive rights to key food items to name brand consumer foods companies Outsource concessions operations to professional concessions vendor; economics will benefit from vendor's scale Introduce "speed-pay" systems to facilitate consumer purchases
Sponsorships	 Tired and dated brands that generate little recognition by children Minimal sponsorships for exclusive consumer reach by third parties in key categories 	 Rename rides and attractions using more modern media and get paid for doing it Receive fees from third parties in exchange for exclusive marketing opportunities to theme park visitors
Merchandise	◆ Tired and dated brands that generate little recognition by children	 Co-branded integrated marketing and sponsorship opportunities with partners in areas such as, for example, action sports, athletics, video games, music, and movies Introduce "speed-pay" systems to facilitate consumer purchases

Redesign Advertising & Marketing Strategies

Solutions

Overview

- Reduce advertising & marketing expenditure
- Focus on two primary audiences for the business
 - families with young children
 - youth/teenagers
- Advertising budget will be spent primarily on direct marketing and co-op advertising

Direct Marketing

- Direct marketing (responsebased advertising)
 - target direct mail utilizing statistical analysis and demographic data
 - deliver message more efficiently and effectively
 - example: partner with cereal companies to run promotions on tens of millions of cereal boxes delivered to the appropriate audience families with young children

Co-op Advertising

- Co-op advertising
 - co-op advertising with partners in areas such as action sports, athletes, video games, musicians, celebrities and movie premiers
 - customized offers to benefit
 Six Flags and co-op partners

Case Study — Revamping the "Volkswagen" Brand

Arnold Communications, a Snyder Communications Subsidiary, Helped Restore a Struggling Brand to Cultural Relevance

- By 1995, Volkswagen's North America sales were struggling at 115,167 units
 - Japanese cars and equally efficient smaller American-made cars had been seizing more and more market share
- In March 1995, Volkswagen of America appointed Arnold Communications
 - "On the road of life, there are passengers and there are drivers. Drivers wanted."
- In 1997, the award winning "Da Da Da" campaign was launched
- By March 2000:
 - Sales goal in North America had reached 363,000 units, a gain of 215%
 - Unaided brand awareness reached 31%, rising from 11% previously
 - Advertising recall grew from 37% in 1995 to 78% in 2000
 - Brand loyalty went from 31% to 51% for the period
 - Unaided purchase consideration grew 225% to 13%
- On top of these measurable statistics, Volkswagen's brand generated significant "buzz" and also a tremendous amount of dealer enthusiasm

Create Strategic Concession Relationships

Size of the Opportunity	 ◆ Six Flags' customer base approximately 34 million visitors annually * "Value" of Six Flags' visitor base provides the Company with significant leverage when negotiating with potential brand name partners
Partner with Leading Consumer Brands	 ◆ Partner with ONE exclusive provider per category, such as, for example: pizza company burger company family dining ice cream company ◆ Concession revenues can be increased through sale of commercially appealing branded products
Facilitate Consumer Spending and Marketing	 Update POS registers and concession systems to implement a Six Flags Rewards affinity marketing program provides real-time data for direct marketing use of purchasing habits, demographic information and usage numbers universal credit and debit card acceptance is critical
Outsourcing of Concessions and Sale of Equipment	 ◆ Concessions bid out to a select group of concessionaire companies ◆ Sell beverage and related equipment ◆ Take advantage of economics that can be generated by vendors with significant scale

Create Strategic Sponsorship Relationships

Re-branding Partnerships

- Consistent with our advertising and marketing initiative, the brand image of Six Flags should be:
 - CLEAN
 - SAFE
 - FUN
- ♦ Achieved through partnering with more modern media brands:
 - Co-Branded attractions using current characters and more modern themes
 - youth marketing including tournaments
 - partnerships build tremendous loyalty and affinity with attendees

"Official" Sponsorships

- Category-exclusive opportunities, enabling marketing partners to target our approximately 34 million customers
 - national banks: exclusive ATM placement everywhere
 - credit card issuers: preferred credit card relationship—Six Flags branded credit card
 - cable and satellite providers: on–site marketing presence
 - cellular phone companies: co-op specials with monthly invoices
 - fast–track service: presented by sponsor
 - energy provider: official energy provider, re-bidding energy costs at all parks

Other Potential Opportunities to Drive Value

Ticket Pricing	 Evaluate ticket pricing structure with latest computer technologies consider trends, incremental pricing develop variable pricing models Eliminate any unnecessary pricing discounts Reprice season passes in line with all other theme parks
Parking	 Rent the parks and parking lots for special events Create tiered pricing for premium parking closer to entrance Example: FedExField created a special events business line generating over $1 million of earnings for a single venue
Merchandise	 Improve merchandising tie-ins to increase merchandising sales Develop loyalty program to stimulate repeat purchases Update merchandise offerings for newer more popular brands and sponsorships

Concessions Strategy—The Washington Redskins Case Study

Mr. Snyder Has Extensive Experience in Enhancing Operational Performance in the Venue-based Entertainment Business

Equipment Sales

- ◆ All concession equipment has been sold to Centerplate for $16 million
 - concession vendor acquires all concession equipment and rights enabling Redskins to pay down debt
 - vendor much more effective at satisfying consumer's hunger and thirst
 - Redskins maintain complete control over which brands are sold
- ◆ Beverage equipment paid for by Coke (including maintenance and upgrades)

Partner with Leading Consumer Brands

- ◆ Redskins receive 36% of the gross concession receipts
- ♦ No responsibility for the upkeep and maintenance of the equipment
- ◆ In-stadium name brand partners includes Hooters

Facilitate Consumer Spending

- ◆ "Forward Pass" tap-and-go payment system facilitates increased spending by reducing transaction times and customer service wait times
- ◆ Combined with partnering with concessions provider and leading consumer brands, food spending is $17.50 per cap (versus $9 when team was acquired)

Similar Opportunities Abound At Six Flags!!

Asset Sales Strategy

Several Assets, Including Excess Real Estate, Should be Sold So as Not to Impact Operational Cash Flow Today or in the Future

◆ The expertise of Dwight Schar will be of great importance to extracting value

Asset	Opportunity
Excess Real Estate ~3,700 acres	 Re-zone excess acreage surrounding selected parks Revalue property and sell to third parties Acreage to be sold will not have any impact on park operations, present or future (property tax savings!!)
Concessions Equipment	 Concessions equipment sales part of plan to outsource concessions to third party vendor Ability to negotiate higher price for existing equipment by creating competitive dynamics for vendors bidding for business

Proceeds From Asset Sales Will Be Used to De-Leverage the Company

Transition Plan—Key Initiatives

A Running Start

- 30 Parks in 30 Days
 - Energize and motivate employees around new, hands-on leadership
 - Focus on guest experience factors, maintenance, and safety
- Re-launch Brand Image on the Back of the 45th Anniversary Celebration
 - "45 Years of Family Fun. Come Take a Ride With Us!"
- Six Flags University
 - Uniform, Universal Customer Service Initiative
 - Rotation for Retention
- Deals Deals Deals
 - License With Culturally Relevant Family Icons
 - Strategic Brand Alliances
 - Immediate Advertising Agreements
- Evaluate Designs of Major Attractions
 - Improve Merchandising to Raise Per Caps
 - Emphasis on Doing More for Children Under 48" Tall

SECTION 5

Conclusion — Time For Change

Act Now to Protect Your Investment

It Is Imperative That Shareholders Act Now to Prevent Further Loss of Value

- ♦ It is our view that it's unlikely a buyer will emerge at an attractive price for your shares
 - due to change of control costs in excess of $170 million relating to debt retirement and refinancing fees, executive severance and termination costs, legal and financial advisory fees
- ◆ We believe the Company's sale announcement is merely a defensive tactic
- ◆ A new operational plan should be given the opportunity to fix Six Flags
- ◆ Operating plans need to be adopted this Fall, well in advance of the next peak summer season
- ◆ As a minority of the Board, we will not have the ability to block a sale
 - as the Company's largest shareholder, we will vote in favor of any transaction we believe will offer shareholders the highest value

Now is not the time to sell the Company! It is time to put our Nominees on the Board!
